AWWOD Publicity Permission Slip

We are quite often approached for contact details of some of our members for the purposes of publicity for either interviews or information for articles in relation to Anzac Day, World War One, relatives and war experiences. If you are happy to be part of that please sign the form to give your permission for us to pass on your contact details and other relevant information.

Sometimes those seeking this information want to speak to a certain age bracket so would you mind including your age and your relative's Service unit.

I give permission for my contacts details to be given out for the purposes of publicity by signing this form.
